The Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 7:11-17

Jesus demonstrates his power over death.

Background on the Gospel

The Gospel of Luke, written around A.D. 80-90, is best understood in light of the author's background. Luke was not Jewish, nor was he among the first generation of Christian disciples. He did not know or travel with Jesus. To write his Gospel, he depended on the testimony and traditions of eyewitnesses to Jesus' life and death.

Luke, as a Gentile, was intent on sharing Jesus' life story, teachings, and message of universal Salvation. In the passage before this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus cures the dying slave of a Gentile. Throughout his Gospel, Luke demonstrates that God's promises to Israel are fulfilled in Jesus and that Salvation through Jesus Christ is extended to all people.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus and his disciples are approaching the city of Naim when they come upon a large funeral procession. The only son of a widow is being carried out. Jesus, filled with pity for the grieving mother, tells her not to weep. He then touches the coffin and tells the young man to arise. With that, the dead man gets up and starts speaking. The crowd, amazed at what they have just witnessed, praise God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen in our midst" and "God has visited his people."

This is reminiscent of what we hear in today's First Reading from 1 Kings when the prophet Elijah raised from the dead the only son of a widow. The woman's response is recognition of Elijah as a prophet, a man of God: "It is truly the word of the LORD that you speak."

For all these people, at this point in time, Jesus is a great prophet doing wonders and speaking in the name of God.
 Even John the Baptist sent his followers to listen to Jesus and report back to him. John's question was: "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" (Luke 7:19) The time for the full revelation of Jesus' person and his mission is yet to come.

Summer – What do I wear??

Summer in our sweltering region has come upon us with temperatures that are pretty high.

Casual has dominated the everyday life of people and that raises a concern about modesty in our liturgical celebration during these summer months.

We are not advocating that 'the dress code be a barrier', but that it should enhance worship to God as the psalmist calls out 'to Adore the Lord in holy attire' (Psalm 96:9)

While modesty is an orientation of the heart of putting God first and foremost, the outward manifestation of that attitude is a necessary component.

Generally speaking, clothes say something about the values we espouse. Immodest dressing when we go to the presence of God in worship is inappropriate. DESCENT attire expresses the respect our worship calls for.

WORKING WONDERS WITH FAMILIES IN OUR NEIGHBOURHOODS...

A few years ago, Lauren was hospitalized at 16 years of age after receiving a severe beating from her mother. The violence had been going on for several months, and Lauren was afraid to talk about it. Eventually, her mother faced charges of abuse and Lauren was removed from her family's home. She came to Sancta Maria House looking for a more permanent, safe place to live. Lauren spent the last 2 years here and has made many positive gains. Through the counselling of supportive staff, she was able to let go of the anger from her past and focus on making a bright future for herself. Lauren is grateful for all of the devoted staff at ShareLife-supported Sancta Maria House for making such a wonderful difference in her life. Last year, ShareLife-supported Family Service agencies provided family counselling to over 5,100 people in the Greater Toronto Area.

Thank you for your Generosity.
You can work wonders!
