The Risen Lord will fill all our empty spaces because with Him there is no emptiness. He had defied death, and He will give life to all dead areas of our lives.

Then, He will send us out to proclaim to the world that, 'He is truly Risen! Alleluia Alleluia!'

Fr. Colman

"God's mercy can make even the driest land become a garden, can restore life to dry bones (cf. Ez 37:1-14). ... Let us be renewed by God's mercy, let us be loved by Jesus, let us enable the power of his love to transform our lives too; and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation and make justice and peace flourish."

Pope Francis

WORKING WONDERS OVERSEAS THROUGH THE PASTORAL MISSION FUND...

"This workshop has helped me to reflect on my priestly call, a privileged service in God's Kingdom; and has reenergized me and my brother priests to be better in our service. Given our rural and remote location, serving people who live in poverty can be draining at times. This workshop and dialogue has made a renewing impact for many of us. It has given us hope and strength to renew our enthusiasm and we do hope it continues in the future. We are deeply grateful and offer our prayers of support to ShareLife who made it financially possible for us to come together." – St. Justine de Jacobis Pastoral Office, Catholic Eparchy of Segenety, Eritrea.

Father
Michael
McGivney

1852-1890

Also, I do want to look ahead as well to Tuesday, March 29th which celebrates the founding of the Knights of Columbus by Father Michael McGivney in 1882. A parish priest, Father McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal benefit society offering low-cost life insurance to immigrant families facing destitution if a breadwinner died. Today, they have $85 billion of life insurance in force. As well, there are more than 14,000 councils and over one million members. His process to sainthood began in 1997 and continues to this day. Why not join us on Tuesday morning as we celebrate the founding of the Knights of Columbus.
