Love for All

Because all creatures are connected, each must be cherished with love and respect, for all of us as living creatures are dependent on one another. Each is responsible for the care of this family.

Pope Francis

Identity Crisis

The appointed readings for the First Sunday in Lent always tell the story of Jesus at a crossroad of his life. It happens immediately after his baptism by John in the Jordan River. There the voice of God had spoken, "You are my beloved Son."

The scene shifts to the wilderness, as Jesus is tempted by the devil. Each temptation is a challenge to that Word from God: "You are my beloved Son." Each temptation in some way invites Jesus to question that voice of God.

Every crossroad of life, every transition of faith that we face, contains within it the same question – who are we? Below the surface lie deeper questions:

Will we trust the voice of God?

Will we trust who God says we are?

Will we trust who God says he is for us?

The answers to those questions will equip us to face the temptations lying in wait at every crossroad.

Join the "Call for Conscience"

Now that Canada has legalized assisted suicide/euthanasia, did you know that doctors in Ontario are forced to provide direct referrals for patients seeking to end their lives? Doctors who object feel a direct referral is akin to being an accomplice to assisted suicide. No foreign jurisdiction in the world that has legalized euthanasia/assisted suicide has forced health care workers or facilities to act against their conscience. Visit www.CanadiansforConscience.ca to learn more, join the "Call for Conscience" and to write directly to your Member of Provincial Parliament asking them to protect conscience rights.

Knights Korner Council 11729

The Knights of Columbus are approaching their 135th anniversary. Specifically, on March 29, 1882, Father Michael J. McGivney, the assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut, obtained a charter from the state legislator for the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal benefit society.

The Knights were formed to render financial aid to Catholic men and their families. Over time, the Order has helped families obtain economic security and stability through its life insurance, annuity and long term care programs and we contribute time and energy throughout our community. World-wide, there are 15,342 Councils and 1.9 million members. Will you be the next new member? Please join us.
