Ministers to the Sick

Those parishioner who are taking communion to the sick and homebound are required to present their Pyx to the Sacristan in the sacristy before mass preparation.

Born Gonxha (Agnes) Bojaxhiu in Yugoslavia, on August 27, 1910. Though so much of her young life was centred in the Church, Mother Teresa later revealed that until she reached 18, she had never thought of being a nun.

In 1928 at the age of 18 she chose the Loreto Sisters of Dublin, missionaries and educators founded in the 17th century to educate young girls. One year later she was sent to Darjeeling to the novitiate of the Sisters of Loreto. In 1931, she made her first vows there, choosing the name of Teresa, honouring both saints of the same name, Teresa of Avila and Therese of Lisieux.

The invitation to her "second calling," that Teresa heard in 1946 was when she travelled to Darjeeling for retreat. During the next two years, Teresa pursued every avenue to follow what she "never doubted" was the direction God was pointing her. I heard the call to give up all and follow Christ into the slums to serve him among the poorest of the poor."

Mother Teresa continued her work among the poorest of the poor, depending on God for all of her needs. Despite years of strenuous physical, emotional and spiritual work, Mother Teresa seemed unstoppable. Though frail and bent, with numerous ailments, she always returned to her work, to those who received her compassionate care for more than 50 years.

Finally, on September 5, 1997, after finishing her dinner and prayers, her weakened heart gave her back to the God who was the very centre of her life.

Knights Korner Council 11729

On behalf of the Knights of Columbus, welcome to the summer that never ends. Along with the heat, our major highlight was World Youth Day (WYD) and the attendance of two young men from our parish, Dillon Mendes and Jordan Samaroo. Held from July 25-31 in Poland, Dillon has already given a positive report. Early in August, Toronto hosted the 134th Supreme Convention and several members of both our and neighbouring councils volunteered at the event.

As we begin a new year, we are planning a BBQ following the 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses on Sunday, September 11th and hopefully, on that day, we will hear more from Dillon Mendes about World Youth Day.

As we head into September, we will have a meeting on September 8th and we welcome the men of the parish to drop in at 7:00 p.m. and begin the membership process. See you there.
