Deacon Robert Partridge

SECRETARY: Nicolette Alfonso YOUTH MINISTER: Bianca Hutchinson

Let us give thanks to the Lord

We thank thee, Lord,
For fields of grain
Gold and ripe from summer's rain,
For hillsides bright
With scarlet trees
That rustle in the autumn breeze,
For friends so dear,
For those we love,
For all things sent
From heaven above...
We thank thee, Lord

LITURGY OF THE WORD:

YEAR "C" 2 Kings 5.14-17; 2 Tim 2.8-13; Luke 17.11-19

Each year, on the second Monday of October, families and friends gather for a unique sharing and offering of gratitude to God and to each other. Characteristic of this is the whole ensemble of delicious foods i.e. cranberry sauce, stuffing, and pumpkin pie taking up the landscape on the plates, all rallying behind the turkey, the traditional main course for Thanksgiving.

It is a celebration of acknowledging that, who we are and what we have, who we were and who we become belongs to our loving and kind Lord and God.

The day reminds us all that we are all gifts that enrich each other. We thank God for the People in our Life.

It is so easy to take people for granted, or even to complain and become angry because they do not meet our every wish. But we need to give thanks for those around us—our spouses, our children, our relatives, our friends and others who help us in many different ways.

We should never forget that we have a storage in our lives, filled with moments of love, happiness, joys and successes. To give thanks is to relive them with a grateful heart.

We in the Church have been given the highest expression of the act of thanksgiving in the celebration of the Eucharist when Jesus said, 'Do this in memory of me'. On a day like this, it is a blessing to open our celebrations with the mass. Churches should be overflowing with people who realize that everything we are and everything we have comes from God.

Let us remember to give thanks, not just once a year but always, and in so doing, help others to give thanks by sharing our gifts with those who are in need.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

With Blessings, Fr. Colman
