HAPPY SUMMER TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS!

Brothers and sisters in Christ,

Since this is the final bulletin issue before we begin the summer break, I wish each one of you a blessed and relaxing season. The year has been tough for many, although it set a more relaxing tone than the last two years when we were all being bombarded with persistent threat of COVID 19 and it's effects on individuals, families and society at large. We thank God that we are now getting into a more relaxed pace and are going to enjoy the summer holidays.

One day Jesus saw his tired apostles after they had done the work he sent them to do. He knew that they needed time to rest, to refresh and be filled with energy so he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest." (Mk.6:31)

It was not enough for them to get away by themselves. They needed to be with him. 'Come away' meant he would be involved otherwise he would have said 'Go away'.

Jesus knows we are tired and so he is calling us saying 'Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest'. Vacation time is a time to rest and renew our strength.

We've worked hard, and under difficult circumstances, with masks on which made it hard to breathe, with sanitizers which may have bleached our skin and with gloves which made us lose the sense of touch! (Seen a puppy with a pair of socks on her feet?)

Jesus, does not want us to leave him behind. He wants us to be with him, as we celebrate our reunions with family and friends, as we drive or fly or sail... as we walk in the cool under the trees, and swim and as we have our BBQs. Be with him when you arrive at your destinations, and come back with him when you return.

If you 'come with him to a quiet place', you will be IN GOOD COMPANY.

Blessings and be safe! Fr. Colman Mruma
