St. André Bessette

St. André Bessette (1845-1937), known as Brother André, was a humble lay brother of the Congregation of Holy Cross in Montreal. Despite frail health and little formal education, he became renowned for his deep devotion to St. Joseph and his compassionate care for the sick. Through his prayers, countless people experienced healing, and his faith inspired the creation of St. Joseph's Oratory, now a major pilgrimage site. Canonized in 2010, he is celebrated as the patron of the sick and those seeking hope. His feast day is January 6.
