Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. The day recalls Jesus' triumphal entry into the city of our salvation that takes place about a week before his Resurrection (Easter).

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, also called Passion Sunday which is the Sunday before Easter. Palms are distributed as a reminder of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. The crowd of disciples accompanies him in festive mood, their garments are stretched out before him, there is talk of the miracles he has accomplished, and loud praises are heard: "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!"

~Luke 19:38

ShareLife Celebrates 50 Years | ShareLife Sunday is this weekend.

Special collections will be taking place this weekend March 21 and 22. This Sunday marks 50 years since Archbishop Philip Pocock made a bold and compassionate decision that would shape our community for generations: the founding of ShareLife. Building on a legacy of charitable giving in the Archdiocese of Toronto that stretches back to 1927, Archbishop Pocock launched ShareLife in 1976—an appeal rooted in the belief that every life matters, at every stage.

Today, his vision lives on through more than 40 ShareLife-funded agencies providing unconditional care to people in need—regardless of religion, background, or circumstance and through people like you who make their work happen.

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

This weekend we are pleased to welcome Seminarian Andrew Wuebbolt, who will address the parish at all Masses to speak about ShareLife and its mission.
