PALLIATIVE CARE ARCHDIOCESAN DAY

Palliative care is the Catholic response to end-of-life care. It affirms that every human life is sacred despite any illness. It is compassionate both towards individuals and their families.

Christ taught us that life has value, even in the midst of severe illness or poverty. Palliative care seeks to provide comfort and care as illness progresses.

Palliative care is flexible. It can be used during the earlier stages of an illness, with treatments aimed at a cure, or at end-of-life when a cure is not possible.

Palliative care can take place at the hospital, at home, in long-term care homes and hospices.
